

MECHANICAL CONTRACTORS:

All residential permits involving HVAC work which will affect the HVAC system (replacements, additions, finished basements, etc.) will require HVAC LOAD CALCULATIONS to be submitted as part of the permit submittal package, in order to show compliance with Chapter 14 of the International Residential Code. An HVAC Certification letter (by itself) is no longer acceptable.

Please note that any Mechanical permit applications received that do not have load calculations included, will be rejected.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation!
